Judge's Corner

It has been an absolute pleasure having interns from City of Memphis MPLOY Summer Youth Program, Shelby County Commissioner Summer Youth Program, Memphis Bar Association, University of Memphis, Texas A & M, Harvard University and Resident Artist Trinity West with us this summer. Each one did an outstanding job in their assigned area and having them here was so refreshing.

Summer internships allow us to invest in our community by providing youth with job and interpersonal relationship skills. We also benefit by having summer interns. Our workloads are a little lighter, we hear fresh ideas and laughter is more frequent. Best wishes to them as they return to school or began their career.

Again, I would like to thank each of you who volunteered to be summer worksite supervisors. The interns and I truly appreciate you.

I am also pleased to say we had large youth tour groups this summer from Memphis Police Department and Shelby County Sheriff's Office. Special thanks to each of you who served as tour guest speakers.

I believe prevention is key to deterring unruly behavior, so I made time to host question and answer sessions with our summer interns as well as our youth tour groups. These question and answer sessions were frequently the highlight of my day!

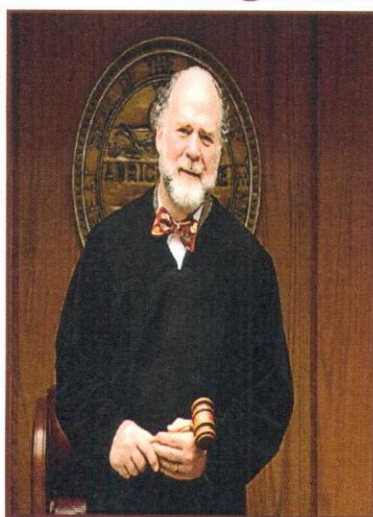

I know we all look forward to more summers filled with interns and tour groups, until then let's keep up the great work!

"Don't wish it were easier, wish you were better. Don't wish for fewer problems, wish for more skills. Don't wish for less challenges, wish for more wisdom."

PCAT Partner

The University of Tennessee-Health Science Center presented Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County with the 2019 PCAT Partners Award. As a partner, the Court is diligent about “protecting children from adverse childhood experiences and trauma” by requiring all court staff be trained in ACEs, having counselors perform trauma screening on all youth and families, and if trauma is discovered make the proper and necessary referrals for services.
